VARIETIES

40% Macabeo, 40% Xarel-lo, 20% Parellada

ORIGIN

The freshness, body and complexity of TRESOR GRAN RESERVA BRUT are the result of a wise combination of clusters from young and old vines.

The vineyards are located in selected areas of the Central and Upper Penedès, with deep and slightly calcareous soils, with a planting density of around 3.500 vines/ha and an average production of 8.000 kg/ha.

Expert viticulture technicians subject the work processes of these vineyards to criteria of sustainability and deep respect for the environment.

ELABORATION

- ◆ TRESOR GRAN RESERVA BRUT is made from the traditional varieties of Penedès. The Xarel-lo adds body and structure; the Macabeo, finesse and freshness; and the Parellada, kindness and perfume.
- ◆ Each variety is vinified separately from the free-run juice obtained from gentle pressing and static racking.
- ◆ Fermentation takes place in stainless steel tanks at a controlled temperature of 15 to 17°C (59 to 63°F).
- ◆ Once the blending is done, a very gentle clarification and subsequent tartaric stabilization is carried out.
- ◆ The second fermentation in the bottle follows the processes of the Traditional Method and it's subjected to a long aging period, as this increases its complexity and allows the subtlety of its tertiary aromas to be highlighted without damaging the fruit fragrances.

AGEING

They remain a minimum of 36 months on its lees, in the depths of the underground galleries.

TASTING NOTE

To the eye: It has a very attractive yellow color, full of golden sparkles that culminates in a persistent and generous crown. It has a brilliant and crystalline appearance with a fine bubble that rises slowly and gracefully.

On the nose: Surprising for the intensity of its aromas. Generous, with fragrances that evoke apple and citrus fruits moderated by delicate notes of dried fruits, cocoa, aniseed and toasted notes from its aging.

On the palate: it is wide, creamy and firm, with a range of flavors ranging from notes of dried fruits to freshly baked pastries. TRESOR presents to the palate an unmatched balance between freshness and smoothness and at the same time a myriad of nuances reminiscent of the endearing aromas of a Mediterranean month of June.
