GRAPE VARIETY

100% Pinot Noir

ORIGIN

The Pinot Noir vineyards are located in the Massís del Garraf, a coastal mountain range in the Penedès region, at an average altitude of 211 meters, with a Mediterranean climate. It has a poor soil, slightly calcareous and with a high quantity of disintegrated slate, with little water retention capacity.

The 20 average year old vines are grown under sustainable and environmentally-friendly principles, with minimum intervention. Harvest is carried by hand, to ensure best sorting and that the grapes arrive to the winery in optimal conditions, avoiding bursting. The vineyard's production is of 7,000 kg/hectare, below the standard average, which usually ranges from 10,000 to 12,000 kg/hectare.

PRODUCTION

- ◆ The base wine for the VINTAGE ROSÉ is made using two production processes. The Pinot Noir vineyard plots were fermented separately. Part of the must is used to make a rosé wine and the other is made following the Blanc de Noirs process.
- ◆ Grapes are de-stemmed. Part of the grapes are directly pressed and the other are left to ferment in vats during 8 hours before pressing. This process is to obtain floral profiles in the short-term vatted musts and fruitier ones in the longer vatted musts.
- ◆ After the pre-fermentation maceration, the must is separated at 0.5 bars of pressure with a maximum must extraction of 52%.
- ◆ Continues static settling and fermentation for 20 days in stainless steel tanks at temperatures of between 14 and 15°C.
- ◆ Second fermentation takes in bottle following the Traditional Method.

AGEING

Minimum of 36 months

TASTING NOTES

An ample and elegant Cava, delicate from the entry to finish.

Pale and bright pink-salmon colour. Fine and persistent mousse, forming the crown.

The aromas are evocative: it opens with notes of brioche and blossom, lingering with strawberries, dried cranberries and a hint of grapefruit.

The mid-palate is fresh and dense, with a velvety texture, notes of dried red fruits and a long, clean finish with a touch of citrus.
