VARIETIES

40% Macabeo, 40% Xarel-lo, 20% Parellada

ORIGIN

The freshness, body and complexity of TRESOR GRAN RESERVA BRUT are the result of a wise combination of young and old vines.

The vineyards are located in selected areas of the Penedès area between the Garraf massif and the pre-littoral range, with a wide variety of soil types, each of which adds complexity and personality to this slightly calcareous blend, with a planting density approaching 3,500 vines/ha and with an average production of 8,000 kg/ha.

Expert viticulture technicians subject the work processes of these vineyards to criteria of sustainability and deep respect for the environment.

ELABORATION

- ◆ TRESOR GRAN RESERVA BRUT is made from the traditional varieties of Penedès. The Xarel-lo adds body and structure; the Macabeo, finesse and freshness; and the Parellada, kindness and perfume.
- ◆ Each variety is pressed separately from the first fraction of 52% must following the crémant pressing system.
- ◆ Fermentation takes place in stainless steel tanks at a controlled temperature of 15 to 17°C (59 to 63°F).
- ◆ The second fermentation in the bottle follows the processes of the Traditional Method and it's subjected to a long aging period, as this increases its complexity and allows the subtlety of its tertiary aromas to be highlighted without damaging the fruit fragrances.

AGEING

They remain a minimum of 36 months on its lees, in the depths of the underground galleries.

TASTING NOTE

To the eye: It has a very attractive yellow color, full of golden sparkles that culminates in a persistent and generous crown. It has a brilliant and crystalline appearance with a fine bubble that rises slowly and gracefully.

On the nose: Surprising for the intensity of its aromas. Generous, with fragrances that evoke apple and citrus fruits moderated by delicate notes of dried fruits, cocoa, aniseed, toasted notes and certain mineral notes that recall the charcoal and contribute to its aging.

On the palate: it is wide, creamy and firm, with a range of flavors ranging from notes of dried fruits to freshly made toasted bread. TRESOR presents to the palate an unmatched balance between freshness and smoothness and at the same time a myriad of nuances reminiscent of the endearing aromas of a Mediterranean month of June.
